Comments – The Creek is a 1923 Charles Blair Macdonald course abutting the Long Island Sound on the north shore of Long Island. The unique links course offers a blend of seaside, inland and parkland holes. All maintenance practices are geared toward providing tournament quality conditions on a daily basis to compliment the strategies intended by Charles Blair Macdonald.

A complete golf course restoration, under the direction of Gil Hanse, as well as a new irrigation system will commence in July of 2017. All greens and fairways will be re-grassed, all bunkers and tees rebuilt, and several architectural features will be restored.
