MISSOURI TURF & ORNAMENTAL COUNCIL

LOBENSTEIN SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

Due: October 15, 2008

The Missouri Turf and Ornamental Council in conjunction with the Lobenstein Scholarship Fund each year awards a Scholarship of $1,000 to a University of Missouri Columbia student.

The Lobenstein Scholarship is available to any University of Missouri Student studying in the field of Horticulture, Agronomy or Turf Management. The Award is originated in Honor of C.W. (Bill) Lobenstein. Mr. Lobenstein received his under graduate education from Kansas State University, Masters from Southern Illinois University and Doctorate from Purdue University.

He joined the University of Missouri Horticulture Department Faculty in 1966. As an active teacher Bill also initiated the Turfgrass Extension Program at MU. Dr. Lobenstein was one of the major advisors in the College of Agriculture during his tenure at MU. His advisees included many General Agriculture Students in addition to Horticulture Students.

This Scholarship is available to Junior or Senior Level Students at The University of Missouri Columbia.
